PASTRIES

ORIGINAL SICILIAN CANNOLO

It's the symbol of Sicily. A crunchy fried wafer glazed with cocoa, filled with ricotta and icing sugar cream with chocolate chips, garnished with candied orange. Also available with a rich pistachio cream.

4.95

PICCOLO CANNOLO CROCCANTE

Crisp nut pastry glazed with white chocolate and filled with hazelnut cream. Two bites and you will be in heaven!

1.95

NEAPOLITAN ARAGOSTINA

So called because it resembles the tail of a lobster, it is a small crunchy pastry stuffed with Chantilly cream with a touch of vanilla. Each bite is a real pleasure!

1.95

ZEPPOLA DI SAN GIUSEPPE

Named to St. Joseph and very popular for Father's day in Italy, it is a delicious shell of choux pastry filled with a fragrant white cream, on top of which rests a sour cherry

4.95

NEAPOLITAN BABÀ IN RUM

The Babà is a mushroom-shaped dessert with a spongy consistency because it is soaked in a rum-based liqueur syrup. It is topped with white cream and a sour cherry.
